

I'm appalled at Chairman Michael Powell's repeated refusal to hear or consider public opinion on the issue of media ownership rulemaking. I'm also angered by his refusal to attend public hearings on this issue. His attitude is an embarrassment to the FCC and an insult to the American public. What a shame.